Saks & Company

Pennsylvania Avenue.

Seventh Street.

The Boys' Shop is the Mecca for Mothers at Easter-time.

The preparations are always upon the most generous scale. You know you expect greater variety of us - and greater value, too. We've set a standard, and it's a high one. But the Saks-dressed Boys are the best dressed Boys in every neighborhood - and their parents have profited by our aggressive enterprise and the curtailed prices that are a result.

We suggest getting the Boys ready for Easter now-in advance of the big rush of the festal days-the Easter Specials are available tomorrow.

on the recurrence of his bir aday anniversary. He is a great lover of flowers, with clusters of roses, carnations and jonguils. One floral tribute consisted of eighty-five large carnations, one for each year of Mr. Oyster's life.

Although born in Frederick county Md., Mr. Oyster has lived practically al his life in Washington and has a vivid recollection of the Capital city back i the early thirties. Mr. Oyster was warm personal friend of Crosby S. Noyes whom he met shortly after the arrival of Mr. Noyes in Washington. He once accompanied the editor on a trip to Europe and during the lifetime of Mr. Noyes was accustomed to exchange felicitations their birthday anniversaries.

Gathering of Family.

All the children of Mr. Oyster and his grandchildren and daughters-in-law, twenty-five in all, were present at his George M. Oyster, jr., James F. Oyster, Mary R. Oyster, Mrs. Albert Schulteis, D. William Oyster and Mrs. J. Baldwin Rutherford. With the exception of two grandchildren who live in San Francisco, two who are at school and George M. Oyster, 3d, a resident of Marion, Ill., all the children's children were present to take part in the celebration.

Mr. Oyster enjoys excellent health, retains his faculties, writes a remarkably legible hand for a person of his age, and retains clear and distinct remembrance men and events of early Washington.

remarks, "the Speakers frequently took that custom has fallen into 'innocuous "To me the most painful feature of the stantly increasing stream of the very best citizens of this country going to Manitoba and Alberta. On one day in est and most beautiful counties under the sun, forty-three families loaded up an entire freight train-as much as one of these big engines could pull-chartered the train and pulled out for Alberta. There was not a man among them who was not fairly well-to-do. Another man in my district sold his farm for $26,000, and his stock and other valuable assets ran the sum up to about $40,000.

"He moved to Manitoba and entered or purchased 10,000 acres of that land up there. He gave to each one of his eight children 1,000 acres, keeping 2,000 acres for himself. That is the kind of American citizens who are leaving this country and going to the British northwest. The immigration agent up there estimates that every American citizen who goes over there carries with him, on an average, $1,000. I am in favor of fixing so that no American citizen will want to depart from the United States to secure a home in a foreign land. Mr. Clark was warmly applauded.

Owing to the absence of a quorum, no vote was had on the bill. It will probably be passed on calendar Wednesday

PLANNED BY COMMITTEE

Historical Pageant Postponed, But Fireworks Will Be Displayed.

Washington's Fourth of July celebration this year will not differ, in its years. Tentative plans for an historical pageant, which have been under consideration by the "safe and sane" committee of the Fourth since last fall, were abandoned at a meeting of the committee today in the office of District Commissioner Rudolph, chairman.

It was decided, however, to have such a pageant as the feature of the 1913 celebration, and Glenn, Brown, secretary of the American Institute of Architects, will be asked to serve as chairman of a com-not less than $5,000, and the limited time the committee decided that the only practical course to pursue would be to postpone the event until next year. An effort will be made to have the plans for the pageant announced next fall, so that sufficient time will be left in which to obtain from citizens subscriptions for defraying the cost of the project.
